Article

Article:

An article is a word used before a noun to indicate whether the noun is specific or general.

There are two types of articles in English:

1. Definite Article ("the"):
2. Indefinite Articles ("a" and "an"):

Indefinite Articles: A, An

A for Consonant Sound

When the noun begins with a consonant sound, use "a". For example, "a teacher", "a student", "a clerk", "a mobile".

An for Vowel Sound

When the noun begins with a vowel sound, use "an". For example, "an ant", "an umbrella", "an elephant".

A : Hey, have you heard about the new amusement park that just opened up?

B : No, I haven't! What's it called?

A : It's called
"Thrilltopia"! They say
it's the most thrilling park in the whole country!

B : Wow, that sounds exhilarating! When did it open?

A : It opened last weekend, and I've been dying to go ever since!

B : Count me in!
When are we going?

A : How about this Saturday? We can spend the whole day riding roller coasters and eating cotton candy!

B : That sounds like a blast! Can we also try the bumper cars?

Story for practice:

Once upon a time, in a quaint village nestled between the rolling hills, there lived a curious young girl named Lily. The village was known for its lush greenery and the clear stream that meandered through its heart. One sunny morning, as Lily was wandering along the banks of the stream, she stumbled upon a mysterious old book half-buried in the soft earth. With trembling hands, she brushed off the dirt and opened the pages to reveal a map of unknown lands. Intrigued by the possibility of adventure, Lily decided to embark on a journey to uncover the secrets hidden within the ancient map. Guided by the whispers of the wind and the gentle murmur of the stream, she set off into the wilderness, eager to discover what lay beyond the familiar borders of her village.

EAGLES IN A STORM

Contact: 9423208724, 9423208723.

Did you know that an eagle knows when a storm is approaching long before it breaks? The eagle will fly to some high spot and wait for the winds to come. When the storm hits, it sets its wings so that the wind will pick it up and lift it above the storm. While the storm rages below, the eagle is soaring above it.

Contact: 9423208724, 9423208723.

The eagle does not escape the storm. It simply uses the storm to lift it higher. It rises on the winds that bring the storm. When the storms of life come upon us – and all of us will experience them – we can rise above them by setting our minds, our belief and by determination.

The storms do not have to overcome us. We can allow our mistakes to lift us above them. Our efforts enable us to ride the winds of the storm that bring sickness, tragedy, failure and disappointment in our lives. We can soar above the storm.
